

FLEOA Foundation Scholarship Program

The FLEOA Foundation Scholarship Program is looking for eligible applicants. Listed below are the eligibility rules, requirements, and directions for the FLEOA Foundation Scholarship Program. Follow the directions below, fill out the application on the next page and mail it with all other required documentation to: FLEOA Foundation, P.O. Box 1306, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163.

Who is Eligible?

Class of High School graduates who are the children of current, retired or deceased Federal Law Enforcement Officers.

How to Apply

High School graduates of the Class of 2009 are to submit the following by August 1, 2009:

- ⇒ The Scholarship application
- ⇒ A transcript of your high school grades, with class ranking, SAT or other aptitude test scores, and a copy of your diploma/graduation certificate.
- ⇒ A letter of acceptance from a college or university.

How Winners are Selected

A scholarship committee consisting of two members of the Board of Directors and one or more non-board members will independently review and rank each application. Scholarships will be awarded in the order of the highest cumulative ranking.

Criteria used for selection

Scholastic Ability: SAT scores, grades, class ranking, honors, awards, etc.

Social Character: Leadership qualities, participation in activities/organizations, etc.

Special consideration will be given to those applicants who are the children of federal law enforcement officers killed or disabled in the line of duty. Hardships may be identified and may receive special consideration at the discretion of the selection panel.

Type of Awards

The scholarship program will be limited to grants of $1,000, each awarded to high school graduates. In 2008, The FLEOA Foundation scholarship program made 40 individual grants of $1,000 that was awarded to high school graduates. As the Foundation grows, we hope to expand the number and the amount of awards.

Submission of Scholarship Application

Applications are to be submitted with a self addressed stamped envelope directly to:
